MARQ Announces Product Advisory Group

Twit

MARQ Services announces the formation of its Product Advisory Group. The group is intended to help guide the ongoing development of the MARQ platform and raise issues that are important to capital market investors. It is made up of high profile, long standing professional RMBS investors.

The Product Advisory Group has been formed to assist with prioritising the ongoing development of the MARQ platform. The group has been selected to represent a significant segment of the Australian RMBS investor universe and specifically focused on long standing real money investors. These investors have continued to support the RMBS market. Initially the Product Advisory Group will be made up of the following individuals:

Julian Foxall

PIMCO

Tony Togher

Colonial First State

John Sorrell	Tyndall AM
Philip Miall	Queensland Investment Corporation
Michael Korber	Perpetual Investments
Jim Fingleton	Westpac
Tim Perich	State Street
Martin Barry	Bank of Tokyo-Mitsubishi UFJ
Rob Camilleri	Realm Investment House

Graham Andersen, CEO, Morgij Analytics, the manager of MARQ Services, advises, “MARQ Services is about providing infrastructure for the betterment of the Australian RMBS and mortgage markets. A key part of that is ensuring we have a meaningful product for RMBS investors. We have been engaged with investors since our inception and they have already greatly influenced the development of our product as can be seen in the recent release of MARQ 2.0. The formation of this high profile group will help formalise the process and ensure that future development is continuing to add value for investors”.
